DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-20 in the reply filed on December 29, 2005 is acknowledged.
2. Claim 21 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected Group II, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on December 29, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
4. Claims 2, 4, 8-9, 13, and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Recitation "said hole comprises a plurality of holes" as recited in claims 2 and 19 is unclear, because a single member can not comprise a plurality of the same member. The examiner suggests applicant to amend "a hole" and "said hole" in the base claim 1 to --at least one hole--, and --said at least one hole --respectively; and amend the above recitation to --said at least one hole comprises a plurality of holes--

Claims 4 and 13 are unclear with similar reasons as indicated above, the examiner suggests applicant to amend claims 4 and 13 in similar manner as suggested above.

Recitation "said slot" in claims 8-9 render the claims indefinite for being unclear, since it is not known whether or not "said slot" in claims 8-9 is same as "said slot" in claim 5.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bittinger et al (U.S. 6,296,277).

Bittinger et al discloses a bracket (16) for connecting an airbag module (18) to a structural member (12) of an automotive vehicle, comprising: a first end portion (correspond to inside portion of an end cap 16 that is connected to an end portion of the extrusion housing 18) attaching said bracket (16) to said airbag module (18); a second end portion (correspond to another end of strut 56 which is attached to the instrument panel 12) attaching said bracket to said structural member (12); and a plurality of holes (44) is separated from said first end portion and said second end portion (82); wherein the plurality of holes (44) tuning the rigidity of said bracket to a desired rigidity, said desired rigidity promoting deformation of said bracket (16) during impacts to said airbag module (18) thereby absorbing impact energy and minimizing damage to said structural member and said desired rigidity inhibiting deformation during deployment of said airbag module (18) thereby conserving deployment energy (with respect to a desired rigidity and its function as claimed, Bittinger et al discloses a plurality of holes 44 that would tune the rigidity of the bracket to a desired rigidity and capable of performing the same function as claimed).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bittinger et al (U.S. 6,296,277) in view of Rose (U.S. 5,533,747).

Bittinger et al disclose every element of the invention as discussed above except that the plurality of holes of the bracket comprising a plurality of slots oriented perpendicular to the airbag module and the slots oriented parallel to each other.

Rose teaches the airbag bracket (14) comprises a plurality of slots (40) oriented perpendicular to the airbag module (12) and oriented parallel to each other. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the airbag bracket of Bittinger et al by replaced the plurality of holes with the plurality of slots as taught by Rose in order to absorb impact energy during collision between occupant and an occupant protection assembly.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 5-7, 10-12, 14, are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

10. Claims 8-9, 13, and 19 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

11. Claims 15-18 and 20 are allowed.
